

LICENCE CONTROLLER QUALIFICATION

1 DAY COURSE

Distance Learning Available

Take your career to the next level – gain your LCQ qualification! If you work as a manager in a licenced premises, it is a legal requirement to hold a Licence Controller Qualification under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act (2012). This nationally recognized qualification is presented by tutors with a wealth of industry experience who understand your ambitions and opportunities relating to the liquor sector. This course is comprised of the two unit standards that make up the theory component of the LCQ – the prerequisite when applying for a Manager's Certificate.

Entry Requirements

- Previous experience working with the sale of alcohol in a licenced premises
- No age restriction to complete the course, but applicants need to be over the age of 20 to gain a Managers Certificate
- Access to the internet and a computer is required for assessment purposes

Course Content

- You have the option of attending a 1 day course with some pre-learning or study via distance learning
- Units covered:
 - US 4646 - Demonstrate knowledge of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 and its implications for licenced premises
 - US 16705 - Demonstrate knowledge of host responsibility requirements as a duty manager of licensed premises
- Once achieved, apply through your District Licencing Authority for registration

Investment

- $300 (incl. GST) for both the one day and distance learning courses
- This level 4 qualification requires a minimum of 24 hours learning time
- In class courses held at Front-Line Training
- Digital certificate presented upon completion

ENROL NOW

or for more information

www.front-line.co.nz

reception@front-line.co.nz

0800 287 754

front line
training consultancy